WOMAN'S CHARITY PLANS FOR ANNUAL BALL; DANCE GIVEN AT FORT BLISS

PLANS for the annual Charity ball, to be given on Thanksgiving eve, were discussed at a meeting of the board at Hotel Paso del Norte Thursday afternoon.

The executive board held a meeting at 2 o'clock, and at 4 o'clock there was a general meeting of the association. Mrs. Mabel Loomis, president, was in the chair and the secretary, Mrs. C. A. Harle, read the minutes of the last meeting, which stood approved.

Reopening of the house for the rescue work was discussed and a committee appointed to look into the matter. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Alfred Kerr and it was voted that a letter of thanks be sent to Mrs. W. C. Davis for her untiring work for the association during the entire summer. The executive board meeting was then adjourned and a general meeting held. The secretary gave reports from the office. The sum of $400 had been subscribed from the citizens for the tuberculosis dispensary at Fort Bliss. The sum of $129.27, leaving in the treasury at the present time $270.73. The sum of $129.27, leaving in the treasury at the present time $270.73. The sum of $129.27, leaving in the treasury at the present time $270.73.

There were five donations, among them a donation of soap, starch, etc., from a woman who runs a small store. A family of three were sent to east Texas. A mother with five children was taken care of until the father arrived.

The district nurse reported 236 visits made during the month. The relief work for the month past totaled 193 persons taken care of; 168 given employment, miscellaneous visits made by the superintendent, 18; telephone calls, 316; letters, 8; postals sent, 47.

Mrs. J. A. Rawlings reported efficient aid given to a high class Mexican family. After the reports were given from the office, the names of the chairmen of the committees were read with their committees.

The next meeting of the association will be held the first Thursday in November.

The Young Woman's Christian association will give a play on the evening of Oct. 24, at the El Paso theater. The play will be David Garrick and the cast is as follows: David Garrick, J. B. Lessing; Solomon Ingot, Charles Armstrong; Squire Chivy, C. A. Brann; Mr. Smith, F. H. Albert; Mr. Brown, C. C. Otis; Mr. Jones, H. E. Montgomery; Mrs. Smith, Miss Dora Hart; Miss Armita Brown, Miss Louise Mansfield; Ada Ingot, Miss Anne Weeks.

The Woman's club, the Sunshine society, the White House and the Y. W. C. A. officers have already secured boxes for the performance.

Weddings

Telegraphic announcement of the marriage of Miss Frankie Burnham to Clint, was received here Thursday by Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Perring, father of the groom. The bride is a native of El Paso, where Miss Burnham went recently and where Mr. Perring is now engaged in business. The marriage had a touch of the old home spirit about it, as the young couple were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin, of Fort Smith, Ark., where Mr. Perring is now engaged in business. The bride is a native of El Paso, where Miss Burnham went recently and where Mr. Perring is now engaged in business.

The wedding occurred at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and the ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Wilcox, Fort Smith. After the ceremony, Mr. Martin served a luncheon in honor of the bride and groom, who will be at home in Fort Smith after November 1. Mr. and Mrs. Perring received many beautiful presents from their friends in El Paso, Indiana and the southwest.

The bride is a native of Deming, N. M. but lived in El Paso for some time, making her home with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Young, Mr. Perring is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Perring, of El Paso, and was in business here before going to Fort Smith.

Miss Mabel Wells and J. L. Morgan, both of Deming, N. M., were married on Wednesday afternoon, October 16, at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church, Rev. Charles L. Overstreet officiating. They were accompanied by the mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will make their home in Deming, where the groom is engaged in business.

Miss Jane Lindsay expects to leave next Tuesday for Los Angeles, where she will be married on Wednesday, October 22, to John Burrard, of Pomona, Cal. They will spend a greater part of their honeymoon at Long Beach, Cal. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Lindsey, of this city, and has always been popular. Many parties have been given for the young bride elect by friends in this city prior to her departure for California.

Church Affairs

The Aid society of the First Congregational church met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. J. Tyndall on Arizona street. Business was discussed first, after which much sewing was accomplished for the bazaar which will be held at the church. Musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. J. M. Richmond and Mrs. Tyndall. Refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames J. J. Tyndall, J. M. Richmond, Edwin Burt, Royal Jackson, W. A. Hawkins, A. Shelton, G. P. Hawker, H. A. Magruder, G. M. Marchant and Clarence Fisher; Misses L. Boone, Mary Hawley and A. Long.

Miss Paquita Clemons will entertain the junior class of the Calvary-Baptist Square Baptist Sunday school on Friday evening at 8 o'clock at her home, 508 Alameda avenue.

Dr. Paul McComb, psychologist of the Emmanuel Health Institute, of San Francisco, Calif., gave an address on the Emmanuel movement Thursday night at the home of Miss Virginia Thomas on North Oregon street. The lecture was given at the request of the Emmanuel church and was well attended by the church members. Dr. McComb spoke of the origin of the Emmanuel movement in Boston, Mass., by Rev. Elwood Worcester and Rev. Samuel McComb, clergymen in charge of the Emmanuel church, of Boston. The two inaugurated the practice of psychotherapeutics in their church. Later a similar movement was started in San Francisco, under the leadership of Rev. Thomas Parker Boyd, and the Emmanuel Institute of Health founded. Dr. McComb explained the relation of the conscious and sub-conscious mind with suggestion and auto-suggestion in diseases. Dr. McComb is a nephew of Mrs. G. M. Marchant, of El Paso, whom he is visiting for a short time. Among those present at the lecture were: Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Burt, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Tyndall, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fisher, Mesdames Royall Jackson, W. A. Hawkins, G. P. Hawker, H. A. Magruder, G. M. Marchant; Misses Virginia Thomas, L. Boone, Mary Hawley, A. Long, of Chihuahua, and Dr. H. A. Magruder.

There will be a cantata given by the choir of St. Clement's church on the evening of October 25 at the church.
